Head's Blog

The world of sport has been rocked this week with rumours of bribery and corruption all over the news.

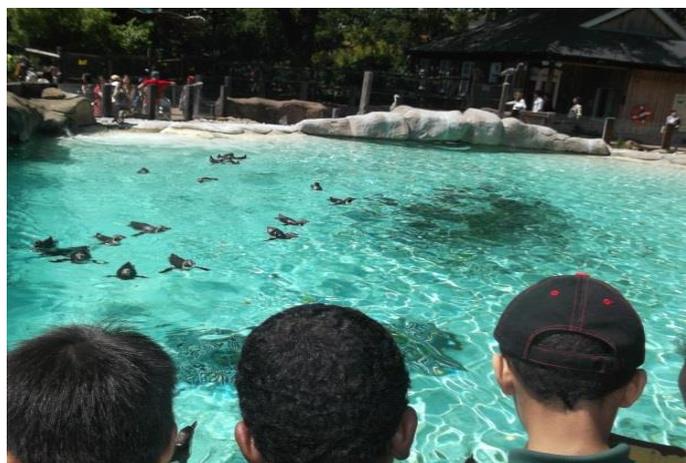

No, I'm not talking about Sepp Blatter, but the increasingly competitive behaviour from our pupils as they prepare for sports day next week! I do hope to see as many of you there as possible - supporting the children in a demonstration of how sports should be conducted.

Staying on the sports theme, the school council and I have begun working together to choose the best surface for the sports pitch that will hopefully be installed in the school soon.

Year 4 had a fantastic trip to the zoo, enjoying their prize for the highest attendance for last term. An equally stunning reward will be going to the class with the highest attendance this half term.

Finally, we were moderated this week and I am delighted to say that the progress made since our Ofsted visit in March was commented on. As always, please contact me if you wish to discuss any of the changes that are taking place.

Have a good weekend!
