Head's Blog

On Wednesday we had our visit from Her Majesty's Inspectorate who are delighted with the progress that the school has made since the Ofsted inspection; adding that we have made more progress in 5 weeks than most schools make in 12 weeks. I will send you the letter from the Inspector once I have received it in the next few weeks. Of course, we will continue to work hard to take the school to Outstanding before our next inspection, which will be within 2 years. Thank you to all those involved in the process and once again, your children and the staff are a great credit to Flora Gardens.

Many applications have been received for the 'Head for the Day' competition and the winner will be announced in the next couple of weeks. I am looking forward to working with the successful applicant.

For convenience, numbers for breakfast club are no longer limited and whilst notice is useful, you are no longer required to book in advance. Breakfast club runs from 8 – 9 every morning and costs £1.50 a day; this can be paid on the door. I will be revamping breakfast club from September, with hot food available. The menu will be sent out soon.

I hope you have a fantastic weekend!

This week the School Council have chosen to interview Miss Cenac!

A very big thank you to all those who attended the PTA BBQ. The PTA raised a fantastic £914 which will be spent on new playground equipment for our students. A massive thank you to all of the parents and staff who volunteered their time in order to make it such an enjoyable experience for the children.

BOOK FAIR

The book fair is in all week next week. In the morning before school and at 3.30 after school.

WE ARE WRITERS

You should have received a letter containing information about the book 'We Are Writers!', which contains a piece of creative writing by every Flora Gardens pupil. You can purchase the book using the form provided for the cost of £5.99.
