HEAD'S BLOG

On Thursday we celebrated National Poetry Day and the theme this year was "freedom". National Poetry Day is an annual celebration that inspires people throughout the UK to enjoy, discover and share poems. Everyone is invited to join in, whether by organising events, displays, competitions or by simply posting favourite lines of poetry on social media, using #nationalpoetryday.

National Poetry Day was founded in 1994 by the charity Forward Arts Foundation, whose mission is to celebrate excellence in poetry and increase its audience. The Day enjoys the support of the BBC, Arts Council England, the Royal Mail and leading literary and cultural organisations, alongside booksellers, publishers, libraries and schools.

At Flora Gardens all classes took part in NPD with some tremendous readings in a special assembly. Some of the highlights for me were:

Reception, Nursery and Year 1 performances of Twinkle Twinkle Little Star, Humpty Dumpty and I'm a little Teapot. The winner was of course Poetry, followed by Miss Earley's performance of I'm a Little Teapot!

The other winners, and collecting 15 House Points each are:

- ★ Best performance of someone else's poem: Hanna Y6F and Amal Y4
- ★ For perseverance: Kaspian Y6F
- ★ Best overall performance: Shuayb Y5
- ★ Best own poem: Sara Y5

Congratulations to all that took part, not only in assembly, but also in class throughout the week.

Trees

By Sara, Year 5

Trees are big,
 Trees are brown
 Trees make leaves fall to the ground
 If I ever saw a tree so old,
 It would smell like grubby mould
 Sometimes trees like to change their hair,
 Or have new branches in a pair
 Trees are big, brown, grubby and leafy
 But trees are old and wise!
