Mr Naismith's Headitorial

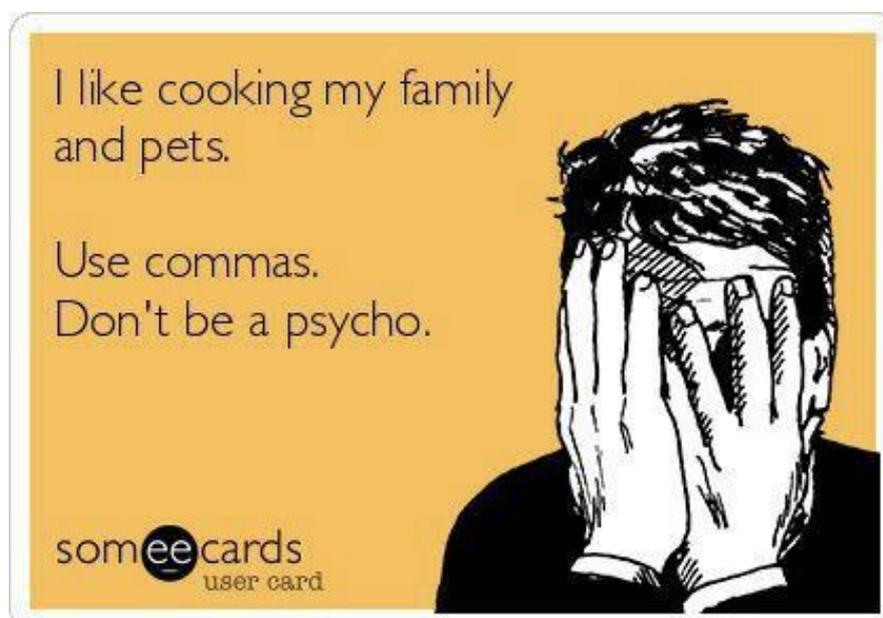

I had to have some time off this week due to an operation on my wrist. I'm delighted to say that Ms Graham and the senior leaders kept me informed of everything going on and all is running smoothly. I managed to pop in on Wednesday and saw the pupils and staff and hope to be back full time after half term.

Unfortunately, I missed the International night which, I understand, was a great success yet again. The International night is about bringing people together to celebrate our community and it always makes me so proud of how we stand in the community. Thank you for your support and I am pleased to say that we managed to raise over £300! The staff won the quiz, the second staff team came second with the Governors, champions two long years ago, third!
Well done staff!

We have an inter-school review on Thursday 8th November, conducted by Sir John Lillie and Addison Primary schools. The Heads from these schools - Sue Hayward and Damien McGarrigle will be in all day with their senior teachers looking at what we do and making suggestions. Please feel free to talk with them with both praise and concerns that you have. If there are concerns, please remember to let me know - I can only address them if I know!

Great to hear the idea that the new Ofsted framework will concentrate on the curriculum rather than just data. I am so proud of our curriculum and the way that the children have taken to it this half term, I'm sure Ofsted will love it too, along with our bank and the continued brilliant behaviour of the children. Well done to all!

A fantastic half term, keep it up this year. Hope you all have a great half term and I look forward to seeing you on Monday 29th October.

Nursery parents had a fantastic time this morning! They were able to see their children's lovely work in their 'special books' and also find out more about the way in which we document the amazing learning and development that takes place during their time in nursery. It was lovely to see so many parents. Thank you for coming and we hope you had fun!
